IF IT AINT BROKE DON'T FIX IT AND VICE VERSA...

MOVING? Please use full information. Moving list is run on Friday for following week.

One of the old sayings around a farm or ranch is to the effect of "If somethin' aint broke don't waste time tryin' to fix it" and since we the people have got us in arms about High Taxes and Useless Govmint. Expenditures, it seems like a good time for the folks we smilingly refer to as our Public Servants to shape up and if President Carter is really serious about tryin' to cut a few billions off the Federal Budget there are a number of places where time & money can be saved.

For instance, the other day we found out that the USDA has been involved in a program concerned with the problem of finding out when cows are in estrus, ready to be mated. Of course, one of the interests in this about this noble experiment is the fact some of Texas boys have been givin' some of USDA's money in tryin' to solve this problem. These Texas dawg trainers are trainin'...

Move Called Effort to Impress Consumers He is Fighting Inflation, Cutting Food Bills, Political Cost May Be Heavy

While the cattle industry reacted with predictable outrage at the action of President Jimmy Carter, abetted by his Foreign Aid Negotiator, Robert Strauss, in his order to increase beef exports by 200 million pounds during the remainder of the year the political after-effects appear likely to linger long.

Consensus among the critics, many of which were not cattlemen in any sense of the word, seemed to be the Carter order was purely political and an effort to convince consumers he was taking action to stem rising inflation and lower their food bills.

The facts, which should have been available to Carter, were that beef prices were already turning the corner after reaching record highs. Dressed beef prices were definitely moving...

lower days before his announcement about all the order accomplished was to make price declines in beef, fed cattle and feeder cattle sharper than the normal adjustment would have been. This cost cattlemen millions of dollars during the period of adjustment, which was already well underway days before he acted.

House Agriculture Committee Chairman Tom Foley termed the President's action a "serious mistake". An opinion echoed by other congressional spokesmen such as Texas Senators Tower and Bentsen and Congressman Bob Krueger as well as dozens of others. Spokesmen for the cattlemen and feeders hit hard at the fact that recent rises in cattle and beef were no more before he acted.

Receipts Sharply Lower, Fed Cattle Firm to Higher, Hogs Advanced Monday

Slaughter cattle receipts were 12,700 smaller than last Monday at the major markets and 5,000 fewer hogs showed up. USDA estimated the cattle slaughter for Monday at 123,000, this compared with 133,000 last Monday and 145,000 the same day last year as sellers awaited developments following recent sharp declines in beef and cattle prices.

Slaughter cows were mostly steady. The price trends, quotations on choice and mixed good and choice grades and on US 1-3 hogs scaling mostly 200 to 270 pounds included:

Omaha fed cattle steady to 25¢ higher. Steers $68.75 to $61 and $57.50 to $58.75; heifers $58 to $58 and $54 to $55.75. Hogs $1 to $1.50 higher at $48.50 to $51. Sioux City fed cattle steady to 20¢ higher. Steers $58.50 to $61 and $57.50 to $58.50; heifers $55.50 to $57.50 and $53.50 to $55.50. Hogs $1 to $1.25 higher at $48.50 to $51.25.

Direct Feedlot Trade Picks Up

Amarillo, June 12 (F-S) — Trade opened active throughout the Panhandle area early Monday. Slaughter steers and heifers steady to firm. Feedyards reported good interest and inquiry. Steers 7,200: Good and mostly choice, 70-80 percent choice, 2-4 1025-1100 lb. $6.50-6.50. Mixed good and choice 2-4 1025-1100 lb. $6.50-6.50. 2 loads good and choice 2-3 1100 lb. Holsteins 55.50. Heifers 5,800: Good and mostly choice 2-4 900-950 lb. $6.00-6.00. Mixed good and choice 2-3 800-900 lb. $5.00-5.75. Good and choice 2-4 925-975 lb. heifers $5.00-5.50.

Trade slow early Friday, but increased some late in the day and Saturday. Slaughter steers and heifers steady on limited volume. Sales on 500 slaughter steers, 3,000 slaughter heifers, near 500 included on rail basis. Steers: Few loads mixed good and choice 2-3 1000-1025 lb. $6.50-6.50. Heifers: Good and mostly choice 2-3 850-900 lb. $6.00-6.50. Mixed good and choice 2-3 825-875 lb. $5.50-5.50. Good and choice 2-4 925-975 lb. heifers $5.00-5.50.

Nebraska Feedlot Sales (Eastern 2/3 of state) — June 12. Confirmed 4,700. Demand good Monday, buyer inquiry highest at the feedlots. But, except for higher, transferring all this buyer inquiry into a noticeably higher sales continues a difficult task. While buyers need cattle, few are willing to follow...

The Santa Circuit

By BUDDY SMITH
All my life I've heard the old wives tale that it rains on the first day of the month. Well, in Walker County, Texas it rained the first day of June, and thus far, five additional days. This is one time I hope we can put a little stock in an old wives' tale. South and southeast Texas could sure use that rain.

South Texas may have been dry, but not dry enough to keep the buyers away from the May Ranch Production Sale. Demand was strong with a large volume of the cattle going to Oklahoma. Volume buyers were: Chaparral Ranches, La Pryor, Texas; Frank Hines, Emory, Texas; and Carl Pfeiffergrass, Del Rio, Texas.

Western Heritage Sale Will Present Exceptional Selection of Cattle, Quarter Horses, Art on July 15th

Last year's Western Heritage Sale met all expectations when a sell-out crowd enjoyed the glamour and festivities of the elegant affair and purchased over $500,000 worth of Santa Gertrudis cattle, Quarter Horses and contemporary Western art. Working diligently to make this year's event even more spectacular and to break exciting sales records, sponsors of the 1978 Western Heritage Sale feel that the selection to be offered will top anything ever assembled and sold at one function.

The 1978 gala evening is scheduled for July 15th at Houston's Shamrock Hilton Hotel. Both the Santa Gertrudis cattle and Quarter Horses will be housed on the front lawn of the hotel in gaily striped tents for three days prior to the sale, while the Western art will be displayed inside. On the evening of the sale, both animals and art will be brought into the Grand Ballroom where they will be auctioned during the black tie dinner and festivities.

Approximately 1,100 persons will attend the by-invitation-only affair, and sponsors report that interest is greatly increased over last year. They expect seats to be completely sold out by early June.

Sponsors for this year's event include John Connolly, Louis Pearce, Rex Cagle, Joe Marchman, John Juslin and the National Cowboy Hall of Fame. The Western Heritage Sale is a nonprofit organization, and all sponsors serve without pay including Marchman who is responsible for the coordination and mechanics of the entire event.

During the auction on the Santa Gertrudis and Western art, Papp will provide the information of the Quarter (CONT. ON PAGE 5)

Nutritionist Joins Cattle Feeders Assn.

Association has been out front for several years in looking for answers to the questions about beef, but it has now become evident that just having the answers is not enough.

The beef industry must make greater efforts to see that the information gets where it is needed — to the shoppers who make day-to-day food buying decisions and the health professionals who strongly influence those decisions.

TCFA has moved another step in that direction by hiring Anne Ilse, a professional nutritionist and educator with more than seven years experience in helping consumers understand the mysteries of proper nutrition.

"Citizens have long felt that we produce a superior product, and therefore, the world would bust a path to our door — at any price," said Charles E. Ball, executive vice president of TCFA. "But the last three or four years, we have been disheartened by misinformation charges about beef causing heart disease and cancer."

"We recognize that nutrition education and research is one of our responsibilities," he said. "That's why we decided to employ a qualified nutritionist — one who was technically qualified, one with experience in working with consumers and health professionals and who understood the beef business."

Ball said Ilse will work with food editors, physicians, dietitians, nutrition researchers, chain stores, consumer organizations and others who have an influence on the demand for beef.

TCFA said Ilse will work out of Austin, close to the state's population center and near the agencies she will be working with.

"Being a beef lover by upbringing and knowing the value of beef in the proper diet, I'm excited at this opportunity to help TCFA take the beef message to consumers," said Ilse. "There has been a great deal of misinformation circulating recently about the proper role of beef. I hope that, with the support of Texas cattle feeders, the Texas CowBelles and other organizations working for beef, we will be able to correct some of those misconceptions."

Butz to Speak At BBU Convention

biggest that the international beef association has ever had.

BBU Executive Vice President Gene Kuykendall said that Butz, who is now Dean Emeritus of Agriculture, Purdue University, will speak at the main luncheon. Kuykendall added, "Dr. Butz is one of the leading proponents of agriculture in the nation and a fine speaker. We are fortunate to have him as one of the speakers at our convention."

Also featured at the convention will be the original Texas Playboys, famous as the band behind Bob Wills. The band, with many of the original members, will perform at the dance following the banquet.

The convention will include meetings by all the BBU committees, a panel discussion of BBU programs for the improvement and promotion of the breed, a general membership meeting where new officers and directors will be elected, a luncheon, a banquet and a dance, and a Beefmaster sale November 4 at the Rex Cattle facility near Denton, sponsored by the Lone Star Beefmaster Association.

Loe Roy Jordan of Dallas is serving as Convention Chairman for the event. For information on registration and events members may contact Gene Kuykendall at the Beefmaster Breeders Universal office in San Antonio.

than a normal upward adjustment catching the industry up with inflation of the past few years and enabling them to recover losses posted in the previous four years.

The Texas Cattle Feeders Assn. said: "It looked, from press reports, like the only two people in the U. S. who wanted more beef imports were Robert Strauss and Jimmy Carter. Consumers hardly noticed; Bob Berglund and USDA opposed the move strongly on grounds it would be counter-productive; and more than 150 representatives and senators signed letters to Carter urging him not to increase imports. Criticism centered on the fiscal and counter-productive nature of the move, with cattlemen charging Carter was trying to "create the inflation." Industry spokesmen pointed out the beef imports would not be large enough to force prices lower, and Carter was trying to break a market that is only beginning to catch up with inflation after five years of depression.

TR Sam Donald 2775. Two of the young herd bull prospects that sell are TR Brae Arden 3380 and TR Brae Arden 3418.

Lunch will be available at the sale which will be auctioneered by George Morse and Guy Shull. For further information or catalogs contact Charles Roos & Sons, owners, Roos Cattle Co., Route 2, Sulphur, Oklahoma 73086, phones 405/622-2151, 622-2152 or 456-7249.

TCFA President Leon Miller, in a statement released after the President's announcement, cautioned cattle feeders against over-reacting to the bad news. "The level of increased imports is just peanuts," said Miller. "not enough to significantly affect the fundamental supply of beef in the U. S. We can hold this market." Miller said cattle feeders are "out front selling the fed cattle, which means what we do will affect everybody down the line, from cow-calf producers to grain farmers." He said feedyards are "supervisors" which should allow them to keep the market intact.

The administration's action today allowing additional beef imports into this country was labeled "a grandstand play, played to consumers" by Allan Grant, Grant is president of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

The Administration's announcement of plans to increase meat imports was branded today as a "cruel hoax which will hurt rather than help consumers of beef." "The projected import increase will do little or nothing to lower retail beef prices in the short term," the National Cattlemen's Assn. said. "On the longer term, the action is expected to lead to smaller beef supplies and even higher prices."

"Never during our adversities of the past four years, when beef prices were low and we were losing our shirts, did NCA ask for government help," McDougal emphasized. "Imports during that time were record large — contributing to the large cow liquidation and higher beef prices now — but something was done to reduce the imports. Now when we finally start making a profit, the Administration chooses to play political games with the law supply and demand. It is destroying the very incentive that is needed to rebuild herds and eventually bring larger supplies and more moderate prices." McDougal charged.

The Carter Administration's decision to suspend beef quota limits triggered strong reaction from the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association. The Fort Worth-based group represents 14,000 cow-calf producers in Texas and surrounding states. In a telegram sent Thursday to Robert S. Strauss, Carter's ambassador for trade negotiations, the Cattle Raisers called the move by Carter "intensely disappointing."

In the telegram, TSCRA President Armstrong reminded Strauss that the consumer price index has increased 45 per cent and per capita disposable income has gone up 55 per cent since 1973, the last time live cattle prices reached the levels they are at now. He added, "Throughout this period, cattlemen have been subsidizing consumers with the best food bargains in the marketplace, while we have taken the worst financial bloodbath in this century."

Orville K. Sweet, president of the American Polled Hereford Assn., stated that "The President's decision to increase imports of foreign beef has thrown the gauntlet before the cattlemen. There has never been a better example of political puffery than comments of Administration spokesmen." The Sweet hit Berglund's remark that the 200 million pounds of imported beef would be "dinky dabs" by now he is insulted by not only Berglund's remarks and the following statements of Trade Negotiator Bob Strauss to the effect that cattlemen had been expected and that Carter's order would have a "bidding effect" on the cattle business and the Administration was aware that profits made now were only going to pay for debts accrued during the past four years of depressed cattle prices. Sweet suggested it was high time that the cattle industry started looking its head and to plan to ram themselves to make their power felt in the next general election.

TCFA noted: "Even some beef exporters don't like the idea. Canada, third largest supplier of imported U. S. beef, actually saw the price of live cattle there drop by $5/cwt. while the import volume was falling."

BRANGUS The Ideal Mother.

There's just one reason you need Brangus cows working for you—PROFIT! Brangus is America's number one brood cow, because she consistently produces calves that are in great demand by stockers, feeders, packers, and consumers. And this means consistent profit for you!

Brangus females mature early, calving as 2-year-olds with no problems, and they give a 20% to 40% longer productive life. They are excellent milk producers, and their calves gain faster, wean heavier, and do better than calves of other breeds. With Brangus females, you eliminate sunburned teats, sore eyes, and other disease and pest-related problems.

Only animals with a 3/8 Brahman-5/8 Angus heritage are true Brangus, for only this combination gives animals with the hardiness, adaptability, and high production that is consistently characteristic of the Brangus breed. If you want PROFIT, you need BRANGUS!

Our Girl Friday . . .

By ANN SYLER

Apologies to you readers of this mish-mash, that is very graciously reformed to a column by me, for what I already know will be quite sketchy this week — if it gets in at all. It's now past deadline and I am sitting down to begin. When I should be having been at the typewriter getting out some Brangus news, I wasn't. Instead, we have spent a much looked forward to and enjoyed three days at our Pecos River fishing camp — a time of unbelievable torment for my unexercised and sluggish body — and a time of unbelievable soothing and refreshing for my battered spirit. There is no electricity, except for the stars, so bright and seemingly so low at night that instead of one light globe you have billions; there are no deadlines to meet, except when you decide it's time to go run the trout lines again; there is no problem of surviving the blistering summer heat for whether to turn the air-conditioning full blast, and worry later about how to pay the utility bill! — when the heat begins to get the best of you, you just go down to the rushing, sparkling water and immerse yourself; and amazingly no problems. In fact, your mind or being past whether you will catch enough minnows for the day's fishing — and since we've always caught jugs full each day we've been

Lou Ann, Wendy and Bonnie Sjolander are shown here with trophies, silver trays and show halters won at the International Junior Brangus Futurity held at Kerrville. The young ladies won over $2,000 with three class winners and went on to win Reserve and Grand Champion Heifer honors. The Grand Champion sold in the Miss America Sale to Willow Springs Ranch for $6,000.

There over the past three years this is not a problem worthy of consideration. We caught right at 80 this time (the last count at the last) — and Billie Cawley and I again had "the big one" on our line that last morning — a 10 pound yellow cat! That is a thrill worth writing about.

About the only element that would perhaps add to the pleasure of all of this for me would be — if I liked fish to eat. It is really not one of my favorite meals, except for shellfish (since I was partially raised in south Louisiana give me oysters, shrimp and lots and lots of crawfish) — and these you just don't run across in the Pecos!

The Whiskey Rebellion of 1794 was a revolt of frontier farmers against a tax on grain in the form of whiskey.

July 1 is the deadline for pre-registration for room reservations and cook-out tickets. Requests and inquiries should be addressed to the American Polled Hereford Association, Youth Activities Department, 4700 E. 68th St., Kansas City, Mo. 64130.

AMERICAN RED BRANGUS ASSOCIATION NEWS

By John Sosnowy

Can young bulls really "cut the mustard"? That's a very important question for us in the Red Brangus business, because most of us sell our bulls as yearlings, rather than holding them until two years or older. Obviously, by selling our bulls at such a young age we don't have so much time and money tied up in them and can make a profit at a lower sales price — and the buyer can get bulls at a figure he can better afford.

But, are we doing ourselves and the breed a favor over the long haul? Can these young bulls really "cut the mustard" out in the pasture? Are we going to have happy repeat customers — the real life blood of our business?

The answer to all the above is a resounding yes, according to Dr. Larry Foster, Beef Cattle Specialist from New Mexico in a recent article for Ranch Management Magazine.

Dr. Foster gives the four main advantages of using young yearling bulls as follows:

"The first advantage is probably more rapid genetic improvement gained by shortening the generation interval time. He estimates you can increase weaning weights several pounds per calf, per year, by this practice alone."

Secondly, more and better quality bulls are available to ranchers as yearlings and often you have a first shot at buying them. "Someday in the not too distant future, when you go to buy older bulls you will be buying strictly from the leftovers," said Foster. "All the top bull prospects will be bought when they are young and be out working early."

There is also the cost advantage to growing out that bull on your ranch. It probably costs 20% less for you to buy that bull younger and your cost of gain will almost assuredly be lower than those of a registered breeder.

The fourth advantage is the reduction of cost per calf. Young bulls are more prolific in breeding, so by starting him earlier, you get more calves sired by him," Foster says, "due mainly to greater propensities and fertility with a fatter, older bull."

But, along with all this comes a little bad and this is where management comes in. Foster recommends that a bull should weigh at least 900 lbs. at 12-14 months before being considered for use. For first time breeders, limit the number of cows he'll be with, too. Foster suggests 20 cows per young bull to begin with. Range trials in Colorado have shown a 94% average calf crop when yearling bulls are limited to 23 cows per bull during breeding.

Young bulls must also be supplemented more than older bulls because they are still growing. "Use of yearling bulls can also delay mature weight somewhat, but mature weight is not the point," says Foster. "The point is that he'll be passing on genetics well before that time and improving your herd."

Once again, it is apparent that the leaders of our Red Brangus breed have been ahead of their time in use and sale of bulls as yearlings and that the rest of the cattle industry is now beginning to recognize an idea whose time has come.

Replacement Cattle Sharply Lower In Trade Last Week

St. Joseph, June 9 (USDA) — National feeder cattle and calf receipts 190,800 this week, 225,000 last week, 298,500 week year ago. Prices for feeder cattle and calves 1.00-4.00 lower than the previous week with many places 2.00-4.00 lower.

Consumer resistance to high cost of beef dropped prices in wholesale beef and live slaughter cattle trade. Second week of modest cattle slaughter failed to stimulate demand.

Livestock Groups Ask Impact Study On Wilderness Areas

Denver — Before any area is designated by the Bureau of Land Management as a Wilderness Study Area, or even as a Wilderness Study Area, an economic analysis should be made on public lands and nearby communities, three livestock organizations said in a joint statement to the agency. The statement by the National Outfitters and Hunters Assn., the Public Lands Council and the National Wool Growers Assn. was in response to plans proposed by the Bureau of Land Management to designate 30 public lands under its jurisdiction for potential wilderness preservation.

Austin, June 12 (F-S) — Texas High Plains Grain: Prices to Texas producers on Monday were mixed. Soybeans were steady to slightly stronger, wheat was 5-8 cents weaker, corn steady to slightly firmer and grain sorghum was steady.

able facsimile thereof. The idea that USDA or to dictate what form of nourishment the kids eat outside of school or the rest of their lives seems to fit egg-sackly the system in Government in which they are trying to solve a problem that has already been solved by folks who understand kids far better than the Bureaucrats and are mossin' around in Mommas & Pappas. Meibis Miz Foreman aims to force the kids to be like they do the kids in their mouths and pump the food into 'em.

If the Tax Payers' Revolt which cropped up last week in various parts of the country, which is widely interpreted as meaning that a majority of the people are sick & tired of Government Waste, throwing billions of our tax money at every problem the Bureaucrats know little or nothing about in the first place, don't wake some of these professional bondholders up, then we can expect to see the taxpayers revolt come on stronger than Gang Busters.

One of the things that the Bureaucrats don't seem to be able to get through their heads is that most of us are dawg tired of havin' politicians and Bureaucrats tell us how ignorant we are and the naggin' and bossin' has reached a saturation point with just about every one we know.

Ever thine, The Editor.

P. S. Uncle Duck Texas Ag Commissioner Reagan Brown's suggestion that if President Carter wants to solve the differences he has with Doctors & Lawyers, he ought to use the same club he did on the cattlemen. Just import furin Doctors & Lawyers in quantities big enough to break their prices. Duck says what we need now is for the Supreme Court to define what a lie actually

The yards, which were opened in 1893, Herefords, Angus and crossbred calves and yearlings show and sell in pens of 10, 20 and 40 head, heifers and steers are shown and sold separately and bulls in. Carter promised us he would never lie to us when he was runnin' for office, but now we learn he tried to pigeon hole a Small Business Administration report disclosin' how that new Labor Reform Law would wreck small businesses. It is reported that George Meny and other Labor bigwigs at the White House were told by Carter "I will do all I can to help you, you will have a strong, constant partner in the White House" — Thassali, Brothers!

NEWS about LIMOUSIN

Around The Limo Loop

By KEN HOLLOWAY and BRUCE BROOKS

Now that this fast and furious spring has just about come to a conclusion, we have had a few minutes to reflect. Since the National Western Stock Show in Denver, American Cattle Services, Inc., has managed or been consultant to over 28 production and consignment sales. The average for these sales has been over $1025. It's certainly been some years since we have seen such a strong and steady market in the beef cattle industry. Frankly, we hope it lasts forever. But... why not take advantage of the increased market and "make hay while the sun shines"...

Looking ahead into the fall season, several exciting shows and sales will be on tap. We encourage you as breeders to start fitting and preparing to exhibit "the great ones". Let's just make sure that the Limousin sale is representative of our great breed. Just to name a few, the Oklahoma-Limo-Expo, State Fair of Oklahoma - Sept. 27; World Limousin Futurity, American Royal, Kansas City - Nov. 14; and the American Invitational Limousin Show and Sale, North American Livestock Exposition, Louisville, Ky. - Nov. 17.

As always, we strongly encourage you to attend any or all of these shows. These are no better place to meet new breeders, renew old acquaintances, "swap" ideas and see outstanding Limousin cattle.

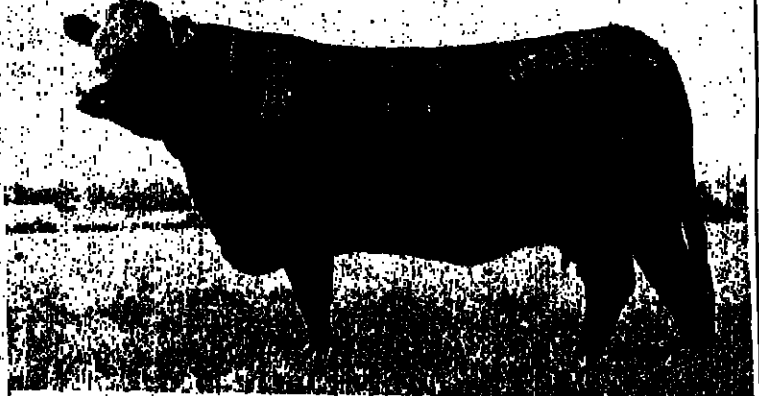

If you plan to exhibit, be sure that you have prepared properly. 1. Choose your show string as if you intended to pick them to place in your herd. 2. Make sure that you have registration papers or have at least made applications for registry at the time you enter your animals. 3. Include all performance and breeding information when submitting your entry form. 4. Most importantly, have your animal in show condition! a. halter broke and gentle enough that a judge or prospective buyer can get close enough to touch. b. enough finish BEFORE you get to the show c. feet trimmed d. hair worked e. dehorned and a readable tattoo 5. Bring all the necessary equipment, but not the whole tack room! Share a blocking chute if at all possible and check the rules carefully to be sure just how much space will be available for your use. 6. Keep a clean house... It doesn't help your image or the breed's image if your stall space is dirty; straw in the aisle, manure in the stalls, unclean or unkempt animals, etc. The above mentioned "pointers" are just to name a few. In summary, we just simply encourage you to be prepared and give your neighbor a hand if he looks as if he needs one. We will look forward to seeing everyone this fall at the exciting shows and markets. Quality on feeders much improved over last week. But includes around 18-20% slaughter classes. Balance mostly feeder cattle. Slaughter Cows: Utility 2-3 38.00-36.00; cutter 80.00-84.75.

Feeders Sold Easier, Hogs .50¢ Lower At Fort Worth

Gloria... Need We Say More.

We feel that most cattlemen associated with the Limousin breed have heard of the merits of this great female. Her four calves, all natural births, and all sired by different bulls have brought top prices in any breed. Gloria has produced three champions and her fourth, WRC Cadillac, an eight month old calf, sold in the WRC Two-Day Limosale in April.

Gloria is presently in the WRC transplant program. She has been mated to a WC Ranch Red Brahman bull as well as the great Carnival. If you are interested in transplants to initiate your Brahman program or upgrade your Limousin program, we invite your inquiry.

AVOID CHANGING WEAR LEATHERS FOR MANY YEARS
Perma-cups are molded urethane, more wear resistant than nylon. Perma-cups will outlast leathers 10 to 1. Their tapered design allows only 1/8" wearing, instead of 5/8" of a leather. Much less friction for easier pumping extends cylinder life greatly. Perma-cups must be used in a good or new cylinder, as they do not swell. Install Urethane Perma-cups. Urethane Check-balls, and Urethane Pump Rod-guides, and don't pull that well for many years. Thousands are in wells that have not been released in 9 years. All are available in standard cylinder and pipe sizes. Write or call for our catalog. We ship same day order is received. This is our 28th year serving ranchers.
